

Press Release

Visit of the President of the Hellenic Republic at the General State Archives

On June 14th 2017, Mr Prokopis Pavlopoulos, President of the Hellenic Republic, visited the General State Archives (G.S.A) in order to be informed of the wide-ranging work and function of the Service and the Archival material accounted for at the General State Archives.

The President of the Hellenic Republic accompanied by the Secretary-General of the Presidency, Mr Georges Yennimatas, Ambassador a.h. were given a tour of the Department of Library & Reading Room, the Department of Conservation & Reproduction and the Archival Repositories, by the Director of the Central Service of the G.S.A, Mrs Marietta Minotos and the Heads of Departments of the Central Service of the G.S.A. During this visit the President was brought to date as regards current issues of the Agency.